...Corn Exchange Bank of Philadelphia where the Cattells had an account. What the legitimate business transactions were he fails to explain, also the sudden change in the conditions of his bank account, and the sudden development of his moneyed intimacy with Cattell & Co. The inquiry grows still wilder. The Cattell affair is not the only matter which needs explanation.

Robeson's Defense.

Speaking of Robeson, the Tribune says: "Whether the Secretary's statement actually covered the whole case it would be impossible to decide without a closer scrutiny of the accounts and testimony. We are willing to assume that it did, and there is nothing after all in the suspicious bookkeeping of the cattells, which implugns Robeson's integrity; but the enquiry will not be satisfactorily closed until it is shown how the Cattells managed to make so much money on other people's contracts. They seem to have gone into the business of furnishing naval supplies as soon as their friend Robeson became Secretary, and immediately naval contractors began to pay toll to them.

Confederate Graves Decorated.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—To day the Southern Memorial Association of the District of Columbia decorated the graves of 200 Confederate soldiers buried at Arlington Cemetery.

Omaha Bridge Bill.

The House Pacific railroad committee are engaged in an apparently unending discussion of the Omaha bridge bill, introduced by Cromine of Nebraska, and strenuously urged by Luttrell. They first voted to report the bill, but upon a showing by the company that the arbitrarily reduced rates prescribed by the bill would fall far short of paying interest on the bridge bonds, which Congress specially authorized, the committee reconsidered this action. The committee was then led to believe that the recent decision of the supreme court, requiring the bridge to be operated as a continuous part of the Union Pacific railroad, would justify the passage of the bill restricting the charge for transportation over the bridge to the amount charged for any other two miles of the road. The committee accordingly voted to report such a bill, but are now confronted with the text of the decisions of the supreme court and of Judge Dillon's circuit court, which show conclusively that the committee has been deceived, and that the courts expressly recognized the right of the company to charge as rial tolls for this bridge under the act of Congress and merely require that they shall not be transfer of freight or passengers there, and that Council Bluffs shall be considered the terminus. The company propose a bill as just for all parties—that Congress shall create a government commission of Cabinet officers, and make it their duty to fix tolls, at rates barely sufficient to pay the interest on the bridge bonds and operating expenses. This, under the changed mode of operating the bridge, would insure a large reduction on existing rates, and could readily be passed through Congress; but Luttrell and a few others seem desirous of making a popular show of reform by reporting a bill which even if it could pass Congress, would certainly be set aside by the courts.

CONGRESSIONAL.

Senate.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Senator Thurman, from the committee on private land claims, reported favorably on the senate bill providing for the adjudication and issue of patents in the Mission land case of Oregon.

Allison called up the Senate bill providing for an agreement with the Sioux nation in regard to a portion of their reservation, and for other purposes.

Edmunds moved to substitute authorizing the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to appoint a commission to consist of five persons, to visit as soon as possible, the tribes of Sioux Indians, with a view to negotiating with them a treaty or agreement, for cession to the United States of their right in the Black Hills land, appropriating $10,000 to pay the expenses of the commission, and to collect the Indians in one place for conference.

Ingalls suggested an amendment to the substitute so as to authorize the commissioners to treat with the Indians for the relinquishment of the Black Hills and otherwise, for the preservation of peace.

Edmunds agreed to the suggestion, and modified his substitute, providing that any report made by said commission shall be transmitted to the President, together with any agreement with said Indians, who shall transmit the same to Congress for approval; agreed to.

The question then being on the substitute of Edmunds as amended by Ingalls, after further discussion it was agreed to without division.

Allison moved then being on adopting the substitute as amended, instead of the bill reported by the committee, further discussion took place, when Allison submitted an amendment authorizing the Secretary of War to furnish transportation, subsistence and protection to the commissioners during the time occupied by them in the discharge of their duty; agreed to.

The bill was then read a third time and passed—yeas 30, nays 8.

On motion resumed business being the bill making appropriations for legislative, executive and judicial expenses of the government for the year ending June 30, 1877. The pending question being on an amendment of the committee on appropriations to restore the salary of the President to $50,000 from and after March 4, 1877, it was agreed to—yeas 31, nays 24, as follows:

YEAS—Allison, Booth, Clayton, Davis, Hamlin, Logan, Morrill, of Maine, Norwood, Ransom, Sherman Anthony, Bontwell, Cooper, Edmunds, Howe, McMillan, Morrill, of Vermont, Paddock, Robertson, Spencer, Sayard Christiancy, Cragin, Frelinghuysen, Johnston, Mitchell, Morton, Patterson, Sargent, Wisdom and Whyte—31.

NAYS—Bogy, Cockrell, Eaton, Goldthwaite, Hitchcock, Kelly, of Kentucky, McCrary, Maxey, Stevenson and Thurman—11.

Long amendments of the committee restoring the salary of private secretary to the President and salaries or employes in the Department of State were agreed to.

When the paragraph in regard to clerical force in the office of the secretary of the Treasury was reached, Eaton, of Connecticut, said the people of this country demanded that the expenses of the government should be reduced. In his judgment there would be a deficiency in the revenue of the government this year of from eighteen to twenty millions of dollars. Next year the deficit would fall off still more, and the deficiency then would be between forty and fifty million dollars.

The amendment proposed by the committee on appropriations restoring salaries of clerks in the office of the secretary of the Treasury was agreed to. Other amendments of the committee restoring salaries of clerks in the various bureaus of the treasury department, officers of the currency and commissioner of internal revenue, independent treasurers at New York, San Francisco, Philadelphia, St. Louis, Baltimore, Chicago, Cincinnati, New Orleans and Charlestown were agreed to; also amendments abolishing the office of deputy register of the treasury, making appropriations for designated depositors at Buffalo, New York and Pittsburg, and restoring salaries of employes in the mint bureau as well as in the mint at Philadelphia and branch mints at San Francisco, Carson, Denver and New Orleans, and assay offices at New York and Boise City. All other amendments proposed by the committee on appropriations restoring salaries of revenue officers, members of the Board of Health of the District of Columbia and employes in the war and navy departments and the various bureaus, were agreed to.

The Senate committee reported in favor of striking out of the House bill a provision repealing sections 3,733 and 3,160 of the revised statutes, which authorizes the appointment of supervisors of internal revenue. On motion of Sherman the Senate non-concurred in this amendment, so the sections authorizing the appointment of those officers are repealed. Adjourned.

House.

Cate offered a resolution directing the committee on whisky frauds in St. Louis to investigate the question of fraud on the revenue in the manufacture of whisky and wines in Milwaukee, and whether any officers of the United States were concerned therein; adopted.

Bland, from the committee on mines and mining, reported a bill to utilize the production of gold and silver mines of the United States; ordered printed and recommitted.

The House then went into committee of the whole, Springer in the chair, on the Indian appropriation bill.

The day was consumed in the discussion of a variety of amendments, most of them offered by Sterle, of Massachusetts, and most of which rejected. Among them was one to forbid furnishing rations to white men living with Indian women. This amendment was opposed by Harrison, who bowed for himself and a gentleman from New York (understood to be Cox), that they had Indian blood in their veins. When he looked at the picture in the rotunda of the capitol, representing the baptism of Pocahontas, one of his ancestors, he felt that amalgamation with Indians should be encouraged. It was the best method of carrying civilization among Indians. Among the best citizens—some of the best western frontier—were half-breeds and three-quarter bloods. Some of the proudest families of Connecticut and other eastern states were descended from the original contract wife made with the concurrence of the chief of bureaus of construction and the steam engineer of naval construction, and that they were of benefit to the government, and the machinery was a great success. The Tennessee is now making 13½ knots per hour.

Commodore Howell, the present chief of bureau of yards and docks, gave a similar testimony, as to his freedom from dictation or suggestion on the part of secretary Robeson in the matter of contracts, etc.

Messrs. T. Cutler, the purchasing paymaster at New York and C. Russel, purchasing paymaster at Philadelphia, also testified that secretary Robeson never attempted, either directly or indirectly, to control or influence them in their purchases.

Robeson Fails to Explain.

NEW YORK, June 3.—The Times editorially says: We venture to remind Robeson that he is appointed the case that he is required to meet when he gives only his version of his dealings with the Cattells and fails to explain his sudden control of fels, and fails to explain his sudden control of wealth. According to the testimony, he was poor when he accepted the office in 1869, and had no money at all from July to December. In the same year about $18,000 was placed to his credit in the National Bank of Canada by the Cattells, and the PRESIDENTIAL PROSPECTS.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]

It is admitted on all hands that the strength of Bristow and Conkling is much increased. The latter's friends are exceedingly confident. The battle now seems to be between them. Blaine's delegates are not likely to go to Conkling, who is Blaine's enemy, but to Hayes or Wheeler. Washburne's name is being gradually brought forward by Conkling men to break the force of the current setting toward Hayes. Blaine's refusal to produce letters is raising some nice points of law, more interesting to the counsel than to the general public.

Atkins and Fisher were recalled, chiefly for the purpose of showing that Mulligan was mistaken about Atkins having told Him that the 7's railroad bonds sold to the Union Pacific came from Blaine. Their examination of this matter seems to be that Fisher and Mulligan obtained information from Atkins about the purchase of bonds by the Union Pacific and price paid, and they inferred, or surmised, that Blaine was the original beneficiary. The correspondence with Blaine, by which he was changed by Fisher with having sold his bonds for a high price, and the admission of the latter of the truth of whatever charge was made to him by Fisher seems to have been accepted all around as conclusive that the bonds sold (Union Pacific) had belonged to Blaine. The dispute among the witnesses on this subject is not very difficult of explanation. Fisher was questioned about the manner in which Mulligan obtained possession of the papers, and confirmed Mulligan's testimony on this point. Mulligan had them with Fisher's consent, and brought them to Washington with his approbation, and Fisher never demanded them back until after their arrival here. Mulligan did not steal them. Fisher was questioned with regard to the character of the letters, and this point, of some importance, was elicited: There was one letter which Blaine was particularly anxious to obtain. Fisher testifies relative to the Northern Pacific; this statement does not accord with the rumor of last night that this important letter related to the Spencer rifle contracts. Atkins and Fisher have confirmed the testimony of Blaine's anxiety regarding witness and of his constant communications with them. Mulligan alone refused to go to Blaine's house, although he was sent for two or three times, and a full meeting of the House judiciary committee has been called for to-morrow to decide what action shall be taken by its sub committee upon Blaine's refusal to produce the letters. It is believed the committee will hold that Blaine must produce the letters, and that a formal demand will be made upon him to do so to-morrow, and that in case of refusal, he will be reported to the House as in contempt. It is also stated that the full committee will thereafter deal with this question.

The exhilarated feeling engendered by the assaults on Blaine promises the utter destruction of Morton's and Conkling's hopes at Cincinnati if Blaine can't be nominated. It is admitted that he is a stronger candidate than both the others combined, and it is doubtful if his friends will consent to take Washburne, and there is a strong surmise that they will bring forward the great unknown gentleman, whose Republicanism and integrity there will have been no time to smirch by ingenious slander.

Hendricks is again the rising man of the Democracy against Tilden, but the latter appears still to hold the lead, despite the intestine war. The dread of the soft money heresy gives him the entire New England support, but as there is no apparent probability that the St. Louis convention will recognize the two-thirds rule, it is difficult to see how either Hendricks or Tilden can win. Nobody is so much talked of as Bayard for compromise.

The Herald says: "As the field now looks, Conkling leads the column, with Washburne gaining on him, and the colors of Bristow stealing a move up to the front. It may be, after all, that victory is declaring for the Great Unknown, whose mystery is still unknown.

Gov. Dix on the Political Situation.

An interviewer reports General Dix as saying that Tilden would not be strong before the people if nominated; that he is very unfair; that he has apparently lost a good fight, and is in a paper fight. He has not stopped any corruption procedures, nor interfered with any combinations believed to be working to the public detriment. Connor is still sheriff, despite Tweed's new charges. Dix thinks the hard money Democrat will set with the West, and on that rock the party will split in the Presidential campaign. If they nominate any infinitesimal third party will be formed which will probably throw the election into the House. Dix don't believe in Hendricks's nomination; don't see how any one opposed to a third term can support the direct transfer from him of Grant's administration. Bayard, he says, is firm and courageous; and these qualities will commend him even to those who don't agree in his opinions. At the time when Tilden was silvered and divided their convictions, Bayard stood steadfast and averred his belief. He would be obnoxious to the inflationists but a very strong candidate. New York will be the battle ground, and opposed as Tilden will necessarily be, Democrats cannot expect to hold New York. Republicans naturally desire Tilden's nomination because, confident of their ability to defeat him in this State. The fight against him will probably not be begun until after his nomination, and if he gets it the fight will be bitter. The revolt in the party ranks would be sure to continue and in any event there will be serious trouble.

The Herald's reporter interviewed Gov. Dix as to the next President. Dix does not regard the success of Tilden at St. Louis convention as a settlement of the quarrels that divide the Democratic party; but as a first round that will secure the discontented followers of old Bill Allen to help the convention and set up a candidate of their own choice. A similar result he predicts will arise out of an Allen, or soft money, triumph and the grand finale will be the election of a President by the House of Representatives.

Cincinnati Convention.

The Times summarizes the first ballot at the Cincinnati convention this morning as follows: Blaine, 285; Bristow, 120; Conkling, 85; Hartford, 82; Hayes, 46; Jewell, 13; Morton, 11; Washburne, 1; unknown, 31; necessary for a choice, 376. The developments of Blaine's investigation in Washington, however, threaten to upset all these calculations.

FARMING ITEMS.

Oats are two feet high in some fields in Yamhill.

The latest from the Philadelphia Centennial is that Oregon is way ahead of anything in the exhibition of produce.

Rye stalks, eight feet long are reported as having grown in Lane county this season. We suppose they will be eighteen feet by harvest.

During the past two days three hounds have killed ten sheep for W. T. Newby, of Yamhill, and there is no knowing how far their depredations would have been carried had not Mr. Newby watched for and shot the brutes. These sheep Mr. Newby valued at $150.

The Yamhill Reporter says: "Mr. Braly brings us in a sample of wheat, pulled from a hundred-acre field, which measures 52 inches in length. This is about the average of the whole field, and it looks as healthy and rank as we have ever seen any grain look."

The Dallas paper mentions a specimen of wheat from the field of Dr. Smith, at Lewisville, of 58 acres, which stands five feet and five inches high, and not the tallest in the field either. It has not headed out head, and it is thought the highest will be at least seven feet high when matured.

Wild bees are to be met with everywhere in Douglas county, and the discovery of "bee trees" is simply a matter of daily occurrence with many of the farmers. Four were found during the past week, from which at least 100 pounds of pure honey were taken. Honey is a drug in the Oakland market at 20 cents a pound.

The Oakland Independent says: "Reports received from all parts of the county are favorable for large crops this year. Everywhere wheat and other small grain is reported as growing finely, with an unusual large acreage planted. Fruit, such as peaches, apples, pears and cherries, have not suffered the slightest by frost, and the trees are loaded so heavily as to be bending to the ground in many instances. As to vegetables none but the most favorable reports are received. Potatoes, a failure last year, promise an abundant yield this, and cabbage, turnips, corn, beans, and other varieties are as healthy in their growth as could be asked for. It is very evident, in our opinion, that 1876 will hereafter be mentioned as the year of peace and plenty in Douglas county."

Bursting of a Water Tank in a Hospital.

LONDON, June 3.—A tank containing a thousand gallons of water in St. George's Hospital gave way early this morning. The water crashing through the wards, carrying away the patients in their beds before it, tearing out walls and deluging the entire building. Several patients were killed and many seriously injured.

George Sand Dying.

A Paris dispatch says George Sand, the novelist, is dying.

When a California woman defeated a lion in a hand-to-hand combat, the neighbors were greatly astonished, but her husband quietly remarked, "Oh, that's nothing. That woman could lick the devil."

About twenty men and firms at the Dalles have been compelled to move from their places of business by the high water.

INVESTIGATION OF BLAINE.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]

WASHINGTON, June 3.—The sub judiciary committee met at 2 o'clock. Elisha Atkins was recalled, and said he did not know anything about any sales of railroad bonds of any railroad which received subsidies from the government, nor of any sales of Northern Pacific bonds. He was acquainted with Aquilla Adams and the transaction in which allusion had been made. Fisher proposed to witness at the time to take some Northern Pacific bonds, and witness agreed to do so. The firm of E. Atkins & Co. agreed to take $15,000 worth of them; witness did not recollect what number of bonds the firm was to receive from this amount. They were to receive them through Fisher from Blaine, but never got them, as the money was paid back by Fisher. He never had any other transactions in the Northern Pacific, nor any transactions in the Central Pacific, Kansas Pacific, Central branch, Western branch, Southern branch, Sioux City and Pacific or Texas Pacific roads.

Question by Blaine—Did I ever have any money interest in the transaction you allude to in Northern Pacific? Answer—Mr. Question—You got your money back with interest? Answer—Yes sir. Question—Then it was impossible for me to have derived any benefit from it? Answer—Yes, sir. Blaine asked that the letter written by Atkins May 26th, 1876, heretofore referred to, in regard to this case, be put in evidence, which was done.

Warren Fisher, jr., was recalled and testified he purchased from Blaine December last an interest in the Northern Pacific road and paid $75,000 for it. He did not now recollect what that interest was; but knew of it at the time. The attention of the witness was called to a letter published in New York, May 26th, purporting to have been written by Blaine to witness, asking him to purchase one eighth of a twenty-fourth part interest in the Northern Pacific road, and he was asked if it was a correct copy of the letter received by him from Blaine. Witness said it was. The original was destroyed on Sept. 21, 1872. When he and Blaine had final settlement, he gave a copy of this letter to Allen. The original was not among the letters brought here by Mulligan. Witness never received this certificate of stock for his interest, and the money was afterwards returned by Blaine. He did not know why he did not receive his certificate; he never asked about it, but presumed it was because it was not a profitable enterprise. He did not know why the transaction was not consummated, nor how Blaine was able to control such interest. Witness always understood this was a purely friendly act on the part of Blaine, and that Blaine was not to have any interest in it in any way; on the contrary, Blaine always said he could not have any interest in it as an M. C. He had frequently been spoken of when Blaine visited his counting room, and when opportunity offered Blaine notified him about it. He never supposed this stock belonged to Blaine; if had been in his power he could have delivered it. He never had never objected to get his money back, and on Sept. 20, 1872, it was returned—every cent of it—with interest.

By Hunton—He did not recollect that any of the letters brought here by Mulligan related to this transaction. He had read only four or five of them recently. The letters he received did not refer in any manner to any of the different Pacific railroads with which he had been connected in the interim. Mulligan was recalled, and said, among the papers obtained by Blaine from him was one containing a copy of the law relating to the grant to the N. P. R. R. There were also some figures, one showing that it related to the one eighth of the one twenty-fourth part which had been spoken of. He did not know in whose hand-writing it was; but it was not in Blaine's.

Fisher was asked at this point what paper it was and where he received it, and he replied he had no recollection of any such paper.

Mulligan was found in the desk among other papers, not particularly among the correspondence of Blaine with Fisher, but among all the papers. Witness was requested to read one given by Blaine, when at the time Fisher paid over $25,000. The letter was produced in response to request of May 27th. After reading it witness said this was all the contract there was between Fisher and Blaine. He did not know why the stock was not delivered, and after waiting about one year, Fisher refused to take the stock. Fisher refused to take the stock for a long time, had declined. Is this all you know about the transaction? Yes, sir; I only know that Fisher paid the money to Blaine, and Blaine paid it back to Fisher Sept. 2, 1872.

Did you ever hear anything more than you have testified about the matters alluded to from any one? No, sir.

By Blaine—Were you asked to bring any papers with you when you were summoned? No, sir.

Why did you bring these letters of mine? I did not know what I was to be examined about. I supposed it was about the matter of the letters, and which he found in the hands of a man who had no right to them and who th... and to...

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4.—The Chronicle has been making an effort to get the privilege of ... a reporter on board the lightning train at Ogden, for which the sum of $300 was offered and refused yesterday morning. However, they dispatched a correspondent to Truckee, in the hope of being able to get on board there and ride to the bay; but he relinquished by this morning's overland train in a fit of disappointment, as he learned on ... Sunday night, through telegraphic advices, that his ... would prove a total failure, and that he would not be allowed to accompany the party at all.

ODDS AND ENDS.

In a horse car, the other day, an old lady seated opposite a sharp-looking gentleman kept her eyes on him a long time, and finally asked: "Mister, are you a pickpocket?" "Why, no, madam; I'm a tradesman," he answered. "Is that so?" she sighed; "well, I'm awfully disappointed. I wanted to try and see if I could reform you."

"I see's advertised for a girl, mum, I sees in the paper," said a red-haired girl to the lady of a house at which she applied for a place in the kitchen. "Yes," returned the lady, "but you are too late. I have already engaged one." "Oh, ye have," rejoined the girl. "Well, mum, it doesn't matter, for I'm going to the Centennial any way."

Fond mamma about to get into her carriage to small boy in the house door: "Now, Freddie, are you not going to kiss me?" Freddie: "I haven't time to come down, mamma. (To footman) John, you kiss mamma for me."

Somebody asked a young lady the other evening if she didn't think the serial literature of the country was at its best just now. She said she did, decidedly; there were the loveliest patterns in Harper's Bazar she had ever seen.

Mrs. Gilrup, of Davenport, remarked to a neighbor the other day: "My husband is the hardest man to reason with that ever lived. I had to smash up my China teapot and throw a milk-pitcher through the looking-glass before I could make him promise to take me to the Centennial."

MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 5 1876

AN IMPORTANT QUESTION

After the 4th of next March the U S Senate will have a very small Republican majority upon any computation that can be made and if all the States considered doubtful should go Democratic, there will be a majority of one or two Senators Are the Republicans of Oregon willing to let the Senate pass into the hands of the Democrats and be run on the plan the House has been run on the past winter If they are willing to do this they have only to stay away from the polls And as it is generally conceded that Oregon will have a Democratic legislature and elect a Democratic Senator unless Multnomah county goes Republican will Republicans of this county give the State and possibly the United States, over to the Democracy by neglecting to vote to-day That is the question presented to every voter by the condition of affairs at this time If the Republicans vote, and if they succeed in preventing illegal voting and bribery this county will elect the Republican ticket, and the State will send a Republican to the Senate, and perhaps save the Senate [illegible] the same sort of management that [illegible] the House of Representatives a [illegible]each to the nation

SHALL THE RING MAINTAIN ITS POWER, OR SHALL THE PEOPLE RULE!

Let no Republican voter forget that his [illegible] to-day may determine the question Oregon is to have a Republican [illegible] which will unearth the hidden things of the Salem rings, or a Democratic [illegible]ture which will refuse to investigate [illegible] ways and straighten out the [illegible]paths of the State administration [illegible] a grave question to the people of [illegible] Oregon is three quarters of a [illegible] dollars in debt, nearly every dollar [illegible] has been contracted by this [illegible]ring and it is time the people [illegible] to see the bills, were inquiring [illegible] the money goes. If there is a [illegible] we shall have two [illegible] as [illegible] of ring management [illegible] extravagance. Furthermore, with two years more of unchecked profligacy and uninvestigated ring management, it will be in the power of the ring themselves on the State for an [illegible] period of time These things [illegible] great influence with the [illegible] they concern not alone [illegible] the State, but its future

Among those announced to present papers on these various subjects are Emory Washburn, the distinguished legal author and ex-Governor Hoffman, Professor Seaman, and many others of national reputation The discussions are expected to be prepared with care, and to present the facts of experience, as well as the deductions of the authors

A friend writes us from Yamhill county that Mr David Smith has been interviewed concerning the bargain between him and Judge Ramsey, with regard to the county judgeship of that county and that Mr Smith considers that the transaction was in all respects legitimate and proper We beg both Judge Ramsey and Mr Smith to understand that we have not supposed the contract to be a criminal one, but we have said it was open to severe criticism, and in that we can hardly believe either of them will disagree with us

The reply of "Democrat" to Mr Bybee's demand for the proofs, will be forthcoming to-morrow morning

LATEST NEWS FROM THE FRONT

THE BATTLE OF CLINE FORT—HIGH TRAGEDY, LOW COMEDY AND STRATEGY, MIXED

[Telegraphic Correspondence from our Special Reporter inside the Fortress]

SOUTH PORTLAND BATTLE FIELD June 3 1876 —Sharp skirmishing has gone on here for some time, and within the last day or two there has been some hard fighting This is perhaps at the present moment the most interesting battle field of the political campaign South Portland has long been regarded as the strong hold of the Republicans It was a daring enterprise of Gen Goff and Aid de Camp Ed to attempt to make a Raid in this region [illegible] cant house on an incline was secured and transformed into a fortification provisioned with sardines oysters crackers &c with with lager beer and whisky for ammunition The citadel was placed in charge of competent hands and a corps of deserters from the Republican army was sent out from time to time to capture such stragglers as had fallen out of the Republican ranks But little star was made till Tuesday night the able generals in command being content with feastings in the fortress But on that evening a squad of Republicans under a non commissioned officer Sergeant Free Mason made an onslaught and captured the fort They treated the captives hospitably and shared with them the stores on hand There were several attempts made to overpower the captors and retake the fort but without success

The fighting inside has been furnitic sometimes The Democrats at one period claimed that they had got away with 100 prisoners of whom, in accordance with Democratic usage they proposed to make slaves But in vain did they urge the prisoners to be manacled In vain did they propose a mutual tying of all parties saying, like still, excellent friends until we have tied you and then we will tie ourselves It was no go The Republicans would up and at them again and again

The victory of the Republicans was not complete until last night (Friday) the Democratic garrison rising in tumult frequently and giving their captors much trouble But on this night a Democratic gunner in a moment of forgetfulness exploded a Chinese bomb in their midst a fragment of which struck Gen Goff in a tender place, though at the time he was supposed to be at a safe distance from the scene The Democratic force were published Gen A T Water made an effort to reassure and rally them and another officer who had come over from the Republicans and joined the Democrats, tried hard as a last resort to yoke em but all to no purpose The fortification is ours, with all the stores, and what ammunition had not been used by the Democrats who are terrible consumers of that article I will send further dispatch at 12 o clock to night, as more fighting is expected

ALERT.

LATER

Midnight.—Skirmishing light during the day To night the fighting has been done mainly with Chinese with which the Democrats endeavored to retake the fortress, but were unsuccessful. This last failure discouraged the Democrats and they gave up all endeavor, and were allowed to leave the fort under parole The fighting is evidently over, and next Monday will find South Portland as heretofore, the stronghold of Republicanism

This dispatch is written in great haste and its composition may not be just as Murray would have it, but it is truthful and that is the main point

Many citizens are desirous to know what became of that gas franchise which Mr Zelber procured from the last legislature If it has been transferred to the old gas company, then it would be in order to inquire whether Mr Zelber was simply the instrument of that company, instead of a competitor as he professed to be when he asked for the franchise The franchise of the old company was then just about to expire by limitation, and it was pretended Mr Zelber's bill would give he city cheaper light by opening competition If this was a deception, by which the old franchise was to be extended indefinitely then the question comes whether the person by whom the people were deceived is exactly the person to send to the State Senate

A Democratic friend writes us complaining that we have been unjust to Mr Sylvester C Stong &c. We certainly have not intentionally [illegible] so, We have said he was a gentleman of honor and integrity, and we see no reason why we should retract that statement. If our complaining friend knows the contrary to be true, he can have the use of our columns, within reasonable limits, to present his side of the case

The Republican committee offer a reward of $100 for the detection of illegal voting or bribery That is right It is to be hoped there will be a fair election, and that no attempt at bribery or illegal voting will be made, but too great pains can not be taken to prevent the success of any attempt of the kind Let us have an honest poll, and let no attempt to corrupt the ballot escape punishment

We had intended to publish this morning an abstract of the law regulating elections, for the convenience of all parties, but it is impossible to find room for it with the press of telegraphic matter on our hands. The judges should by all means have the law beside them Many important provisions for protection of the ballot against frauds have been overlooked in elections heretofore

The South Portland Mutual Admiration and Personal Grievance Society, organized to defeat the Republican ticket without the slightest pretense of having any cause therefor, has prospered just as such selfish organizations always should, that is, it has exploded and the Republican ticket is the stronger for having been attacked in this underhand way

The crowded state of our columns has made it necessary to abridge our South Portland dispatch, leaving out many interesting details The facts stated may be relied on

Sheriff Livingston, of Douglas county, shot and wounded a fugitive from justice named Burton last week Burton afterwards made his escape but was recaptured and is now in jail at Roseburg

At a meeting of the wool growers of Wasco county held last week they resolved to ship their wool to Boston

AT KIBLIN'S

Oh dear oh dear
I feel so queer
Let us rest a moment come sit down here
For we're getting close to the bluffs of sandy
And the place of speaking is now quite handy
Wall Bill what are you going to vote just now
"Straight Bourbon" "Proof loll" come tell me how
What sort are the candidates? Much of things
What do they live" Are they clear of them rings
That are dodging about in Portland city
And are running Multnomah—no not the pity
Do they wear tiled shirts and stove pipe hats
Do they run the Chinaman vote or the Rats"
Do they come from the Oro Fino Hall
Or the hop se tattle hall with the cut throne wall
Are they working men or idle rangers
Or do they belong to the honest granges"

Wall Jack I am going to take a smoke
While I've filled my pipe—Hullo it's broke
Well let's us youth or I'll take a chaw
Till I mend it up so that it will draw

Now Bill I want you to understand,
That the rich all this fair American land
Fr[illegible] The Rothers first where right is slight
To Tammany Hall where Kelly is voted
From [illegible]ro less capitol in Salem
Even to one horse lawyer on the NEWBERG
All that can stuff the ballot and [illegible]
Are [illegible]ting out [illegible]
To plunder the nation and go free
(Thanks to some fixed up committee)
And laugh at such fools as you and me
Who work an[illegible] like a pair of fools
To be these white shirts I humm[illegible]
And I am in Multnomah till I die
On either ticket on either side
A man who is able with hand or mind
To do a day's work but they all take a prick
In looking down on the [illegible]
Well wait a little old pard and then
There [illegible]
That will send all the present tricksters humming
So [illegible] Jack let's go down the Bluff
For I think we have reated and talked enough

THE TURF.

East Portland Trotting Park.—Saturday the running race which took place over the East Portland track, was largely attended, there being at least 400 spectators present. The race was running half mile heats two in three, free for all for a purse of $150—first horse $100 second $50—four to enter, three to start The following horses entered for the race Osceola br h entered by Cogan Ophir ch h. entered by Musgrove, Billy Nutts b g entered by Bomar Rosa Mans field b m entered by Lindsay Two o'clock was the hour d signated for the horses to start but some delay followed and they did not get off before 3 o clock Pool selling began at the grand stand at an early hour and was carried on in a very spirited manner for some time Osceola was the favorite for the race and Billy Nutts for the first heat The following gentlemen were selected to act as judges Chas P Bacon D I Rudd W H Andrus time keepers H B Acker R L Byland D W Hardenberg After some delay the horses were sent off on the first heat It was a pretty even start Osceola getting a little ahead of his competitors For the first quarter the horses maintained their ground very well neither animal gaining much advantage. For the remaining distance Osceola fell back, while Billy Nutts came steadily to the front Ophir got a bad start and did not seem to overcome that disadvantage for he brought up the rear throughout the first heat Rosa Mansfield held her own very well coming in closely on Osceola's heels The result of the first heat was as follows Billy Nutts first Osceola second Rosa Mansfield third Ophir fourth Time 50½ seconds Second heat The horses got a good start and came down to work in real earnest Osceola kept a little behind for the first quarter but then came up like a whirlwind and took the van distancing Nutts who had the lead from the start Ophir who showed before the race was over, that he was possessed of all the necessary elements of a racer—speed bottom and wind—began to wake up to the situation and slowly crawled up pressing hotly on the heels of Nutts who had succumbed to the swiftness of Osceola Rosa Mansfield a nervous wary little beauty proved scarcely equal to the emergency and fell to the rear, —not, however without a severe struggle Coming in on the home stretch," the race was as pretty a one as we have ever seen and roused the crowd up to the highest pitch of excitement As the horses shot past the judges stand, they came out as follows Osceola first, Nutts second Ophir third, Rosa Mansfield fourth Time, 50½ seconds Nutts having won the first heat and Osceola the second, it was necessary to try the speed of the horses again to settle the matter Third heat —a good start the 'jocks' put the animals down to the 'hilt' in dead earnest, and the race was for "blood" from the jump. Mansfield held her own bravely, but it was evident that the distance was too heavy for her Nutts gave away before the superior endurance of Ophir which showed that he had plenty of that necessary article, and that he proposed to 'stay with them' he led steadily to the front and held the position until Osceola swept up as they neared the stand and came in ahead winning the heat by nearly a full length The horses came in as follows Osceola first, Ophir second Nutts third, Mansfield fourth

SUMMARY

Osceola, - -	2 1 1
Nutts	1 2 3
Ophir, - - - -	4 3 2
Mansfield	3 4 4

Osceola having won the two last heats was declared the winner of the race and awarded the $100 purse Billy Nutts having won one heat was given the second purse of $50

We are gratified to state that there was an entire absence of anything which looked like jockeying or throwing off" The horses all went in to win and so far as we could determine everything was conducted orderly and fairly, and no dissatisfaction was expressed, even by those who were unlucky enough to bet on the 'wrong horse'

NOTICE TO COLORED VOTERS.

The attention of the colored voters of Multnomah county is hereby called to the following articles, adopted by the "Colored Men's Protective League," at their organization meeting, held March 10 1874

We, the undersigned, citizens and working men of Portland Oregon, do hereby mutually associate ourselves together, each with the other, as a Protective League for the purpose of guarding against being sold out on election days by a few political demagogues as has been heretofore done, and for the further purpose of protecting our rights as citizens of this republic, and the better to shield ourselves in the exercise of the liberties and privileges guaranteed us by the constitution.

2 As members of such League we hereby bind ourselves by these, our signatures, hereto appended to use all honest and legal means to secure the fullest recognition of our political and social rights

3 We hereby call upon all intelligent colored citizens in the city of Portland to unite with us in securing the objects above set forth and to cast their votes upon election day for those persons who their sound judgment tells them are the most likely to labor for our interest without regard to party ties or any corrupting influence whatever

The above articles were signed by sixty of the colored voters of Multnomah county, who are still members of the League

By a reduction of expenses during the past term the income has been fully equal to all expenditures By a comparison of receipts from tuition that has been a gradual increase of revenue from that source during the years 74 75 76 The income during the term just closing shows $101 in excess of the corresponding term for the previous year which, remembering that the rates of tuition are unchanged is a good testimony upon the success of the institution The reduction of expenses has necessitated an increase of labor on the part of the faculty which for the good of the university has been cheerfully performed The trustees and their faithful agent, Rev J H Roork expect during the coming year that their income will cover all expenses and hope to make this doubly sure by an increase of the endowment fund.

The examination of classes is done in writing It was our privilege to examine some of the papers The time for examination having passed we could only make a partial survey

Papers containing translations from Plautus, Ovid Cicero and Xenophon were certainly of a high order, evincing close grammatical drill, though of the translations we could not infer, not having the text before us

Papers embracing mathematics, political economy rhetoric and moral science, were good Those covering rhetoric and moral science were papers of unusual excellence

A large class in botany had produced tangible monuments of their studies during the last three months, in some very creditable herbaria The collection classification and arrangement were in all cases creditable while some of the herbaria would have passed for productions of botanists of extended observation

The papers of the medical class showed that the questions covered the whole field of medical science It is the critical judgment of impartial visitors of the medical profession that the standard of the medical department would do honor to older institutions Certain it is that students need not go out of the State for first class medical training

It would be a great desideratum to have a law and theological department as well sustained also, in connection with this University

COMMENCEMENT

Commencement week began with the annual sermon by Rev R Bentley of this city on Sunday morning at the University chapel On Monday evening an entertainment consisting of musical charade and prize declamations was given at Reed's Opera House to a large and delighted audience The same was repeated on last evening for the benefit of the University On Tuesday evening the graduates of the medical department eight in number were addressed in the presence of a large audience by Hon Rufus Mallory On Wednesday evening the Alumni gave a varied and rich entertainment. The addresses of the graduates were original and the address to the graduates of the literary department by the Hon M P Deady LL D, was in every way worthy of the occasion and the man and a fitting close to a memorable week

The patrons of the University have reason to be encouraged with the present outlook No institution of a similar character in this State is wielding a greater if an equal influence In Alumni are found in all the various professions and are filling very respectable positions in all the walks of life In order that the University may occupy its present relative position it must advance To advance means to increase its endowment fund so that the library laboratory, museum etc shall all be enlarged, and an adequate faculty shall be amply supported VISITOR

It is often remarked by strangers visiting our State that we show a larger proportion of good horses than any other State in the Union. This we tell them is owing to two principal reasons In the first place we breed from the very best stock and in the second place our people use Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders which in our judgment are of incalculable advantage

Dr. Bunnell, Superintendent of the Esther mine, in Douglas county, reports everything favorable in connection therewith, and the prospects of the ledge never showed better than they do at the present time. Work is being crowded and the mill is running to its utmost capacity.

Last Tuesday Mr. Phol, first mate of the ship Ida May, while stowing away lumber in the hold of the vessel at Empire City, met with a very severe accident, caused by a pile of lumber falling upon him, whereby both of his legs were broken, and one of them so severely lacerated that amputation was necessary.

There is some excuse for creating the northern part of Dakota into a new Territory, to be called Pembina. The large and rapidly growing settlements on the Red river of the North are about as far from Yankton, the capital of Dakota, by the ordinary routes of travel, and really need, therefore, a government of their own. The Red river colony boasted a considerable population long before any white men, except traders and trappers were to be found in any part of what is now Dakota.

A Yankton paper, in giving an account of a returned Black Hiller says: On his way out he found ten bodies at Buffalo Gap—seven men, a boy and two women, one of the latter a negress. They had all been murdered by Indians, and appearances indicated that the white woman had been ravished after death. This party was traveling in a Cheyenne stage, and had been attacked by ten Indians, who, from secure hiding places on the hill side, shot down their victims. None of the slain were scalped, which May Clarkson says indicates that they were not killed by hostiles, but by Indians from the agencies.

LAND FOR IMMIGRANTS.

Choice Farms for Sale.

4,000 ACRES, IN QUANTITIES TO SUIT PURCHASERS.

230 ACRES DUE SOUTH AND ADJOINING the Railroad Depot at Salem, all under cultivation, and suitable for grain or vegetables.

946 Acres, four miles southeast of Salem, on the railroad, with Mill creek running through it. This is the choicest farming land in Marion county, with fine springs, consisting in part of the old Rector donation claim, on which I raised the past year fifty bushels of wheat and three tons of timothy per acre. The first crop of oats ever raised on part of this land measured ninety-four bushels per acre, grain weighed and ground chained by Mr. Alfred Stanton, of Salem.

2,760 Acres of prairie and light brush land, with timber for farming purposes, bounded by the Willamette River for four miles, beautiful lake on the east, boat landings all along the river commencing four miles north of Salem—all choice grain land in the largest and most suitable body of land to be found in the Willamette Valley to be purchased by a colony. To be sold from $15 to $25 per acre. This land will all be immediately resurveyed, and can be sold in larger or smaller parcels, to suit purchasers. It can be subdivided to the best possible advantage, and I can offer any person or persons, or colony of persons, desiring to purchase homes in the best part of the Willamette Valley, near the city of Salem and within reach of the best social advantages, as well as most favorably located with respect to markets, greater advantages, on more favorable terms, than they can ever expect to realize again.

VALUABLE LANDS FOR SALE.

600,000 Acres in

EASTERN OREGON!

For Farming and Grazing Purposes.

THESE LANDS ARE SITUATED IN WASCO, Grant and Baker counties, and are offered for sale to such sized tracts, not less than 160 acres, as purchasers may desire. Here is afforded a most favorable opportunity to immigrants and settlers seeking homes and low priced land to acquire both on the most reasonable terms. These lands are excellent for farming and grazing. On most of the tracts no grubbing, or other preparation of the land for plowing is requisite. A growth of nutritious grass covers the uplands, affording the best of pasturage, while in the valleys and bottom lands the grass can be mowed and made into hay. Living springs and streams water the lands in various directions. The uplands, or rolling lands, can be put into crops with the most satisfactory return. Fruit, particularly peaches, plums, grapes, apples, pears and cherries, as well as the smaller fruits, can be grown in great abundance. The climate of Eastern Oregon is very healthful. Flourishing towns are located at convenient points for traffic, the mails are regularly conveyed throughout that section, and a prosperous population is already established occupied in farming, stock growing, mining and various other pursuits. Terms, $1 25 per acre and upwards, according to quality and quantity. Interest ten per cent. on deferred payments.
